By BRYAN MORSE.

John R. Hooper, secretary of the Richmond amateur commission, writes that the Richmond Grays, practically decided upon as the winners of the city series there, is the best aggregation that ever represented the city in the intercity

The Richmond secretary says that his team is conceded the pennant, and that at a meeting of the Richmond commission last night all business incident to the meeting between the Washington winner and the Richmond winner was ready to be taken up. Secretary Hooper cordially invited the members of the amateur association of this city to dinner at Richmood on Tuesday, at which 'ime the intercity series will be talked over.

It is probable that neither President Young, of the amateur association, rer Secretary Shurtleff will be able to take the trip to Richmond on Tuesday, and Treasurer Charles King will ask the Richmond authorities if the meeting can be postponed to Wednesday, at which time all details of the meeting between the Washington winner and the Rich-mond Grays will be gone over.

"I believe," writes Secretary Hooper, "that the Richmond Grays will have the best team that ever represented this city in a series with Washington," This should spur the winner of the Washington title to hard work, and should put the toams on their mettle for today's
